		However, this exclusion shall apply to only those monetization channels that were actively used by the Partner in the 12 months prior to termination, as documented at the time of exit. 2. Shall not engage or contract with any Direct Sales Clients (e.g., brands and advertisers) introduced by LH2 Holdings. 3. If the contract is terminated by the partner after the partner has 1. experienced a jump in revenue since the commencement of this agreement in the brackets of 1.5 times to 1.99 times, the partner agrees to pay the average revenue share payment over the last 6 months (or contract lifetime, whichever is earlier) for the next 6 months. 2. experienced a jump in revenue since the commencement of this agreement of 2 times or more, the partner agrees to pay the average revenue share payment paid over the last 12 months (or contract lifetime, whichever is earlier) for the next 12 months. For eg: in the second case, let us assume Base Revenue = USD 2000 New Revenue = USD 5000 Partner Revenue Share = USD 2000 (base revenue) + 50% of USD 3000 (incremental revenue) = USD 3500 LH2 Holdings Revenue Share = 50% of USD 3000 = USD 1500 Hence, if the total revenue share paid to LH2 Holdings over the last 12 months is USD 1500x12 = USD 18000 the Partner shall pay LH2 Holdings USD 1,500 per month for the next 12 months upon terminating the Agreement. SCHEDULE III | REVENUE SHARING MODEL

1. The parties agree upon the following broad principles relating to a revenue-sharing arrangement in connection with the Scope of Work.

2. Heads of Revenue.

- (a) Other Revenue (Revenue Generated Outside of Scope of Work of this Agreement)

Unless otherwise agreed, all revenue generated from the Platform by the Partner independently in the ordinary course of business and without involvement of LH2 Holdings or its Scope of Work, or without reliance on Monetization Channels introduced or managed by LH2 Holdings, shall remain the sole and exclusive revenue of the Partner.

- (b) Revenue Segmentation and Vertical-Specific Revenue Sharing

To ensure accurate and fair revenue tracking and sharing, the parties agree to track and measure growth, base revenue, and revenue share calculations separately for each of the following monetization verticals (collectively referred to as "Revenue Buckets"):

- Programmatic Revenue (including all Ad Networks)
- Affiliate Revenue
- Direct Advertising Revenue (including any direct brand deals or sponsorships)
- Newsletter Revenue
- Digital Products and Services Revenue

For each Revenue Bucket, the Base Revenue shall be calculated separately, and any growth over the Base Revenue in each Bucket shall be subject to the Revenue Sharing Model as outlined in this Agreement.

The parties acknowledge and agree that each vertical may have different scaling trajectories and, accordingly, revenue share obligations will be independently determined for each Revenue Bucket without aggregation across different verticals.

Any additional Revenue Buckets mutually agreed upon in writing during the term of the Agreement shall be incorporated under the same principle of separate tracking and revenue share calculations.

Accelerate Program Agreement
between LH2Holdings INC. (LH2 Holdings)
and Wrestling Observer Figure Four Online

(c) Calculate Base Revenue: For the purposes of calculating growth and revenue share obligations under this Agreement, the "Base Revenue" for each Revenue Bucket shall be determined separately.

Base Revenue for a Revenue Bucket = (Total Revenue from that specific Revenue Bucket over the past 3 months) ÷ 3.

The Revenue Buckets for which Base Revenues will be calculated separately are:

- Programmatic Revenue
- Affiliate Revenue
- Direct Advertising Revenue
- Newsletter Revenue
- Digital Products and Services Revenue

The Revenue Sharing Model and growth calculations set forth herein shall apply independently to each Revenue Bucket based on its corresponding Base Revenue.

Over and above the Base revenue, programmatic & non-subscription revenue will be shared in the following manner:

Revenue Increase	Rev Share on additional Revenue	Sample Base Revenue in USD	Sample New Revenue in USD	LH2 Holdings Revenue Share in USD	Website Owner / Partner Revenue Share in USD
<1.3x	0%	USD 3000	USD 3600	0	USD 3600
>1.3-1.5x	20%	USD 3000	USD 4000	USD 200	USD 3800
>1.5-1.75x	30%	USD 3000	USD 5000	USD 600	USD 4400
>1.75-2x	40%	USD 3000	USD 5500	USD 1000	USD 4500
>2x	50%	USD 3000	USD 12000	USD 4500	USD 7500

Over and above the Base revenue, Subscription Revenue (Including own subs + Other platforms such as Youtube) will be shared in the following manner:

Revenue Increase	Rev Share on additional Revenue	Sample Base Revenue in USD	Sample New Revenue in USD	LH2 Holdings Revenue Share in USD	Website Owner / Partner Revenue Share in USD
<1.3x	0%	USD 8,000	USD 8,800	USD 0	USD 8,800
>1.3-1.4x	20%	USD 8,000	USD 10,800	USD 560	USD 10,240
>1.4-1.55x	30%	USD 8,000	USD 12,000	USD 1,200	USD 10,800
>1.55-1.7x	40%	USD 8,000	USD 12,800	USD 1,920	USD 10,880
>1.7x	50%	USD 8,000	USD 16,000	USD 4,000	USD 12,000

For eg:

While signing this agreement, the total last 3 months' programmatic revenue is USD 9000

So the Base Monthly Revenue is USD 9000/3 = USD 3000

Accelerate Program Agreement
between LH2Holdings INC. (LH2 Holdings)
and Wrestling Observer Figure Four Online

Hence, if after working with LH2, the platform increases monthly revenue to USD 5500, then the revenue share will happen based on the fourth row of the table above

- $40\% * (5500 - 3000) = \text{USD } 880$ for LH2 Holdings
- and $(5500 - 880) = \text{USD } 4620$ for the Parntner

(d) Cost Sharing

Calculate Base Cost: We calculate the base cost of the website as

Base Cost = (Total Costs incurred over the last 3 months, excluding founder/management salaries) / 3

Additional Costs: We calculate additional costs as

Additional Costs = New Total Costs - Base Costs

Sharing Additional Costs

LH2 Holdings and the Partner split Additional Costs in the same ratio as revenue share.

Quick Example

Base Revenue: USD 3,000 & Base Cost: USD 2,000

New Revenue: USD 5,500 & New Cost: USD 3,000

Hence we are in the 40% Incremental Revenue Share tranche (because revenue grew by 83%)

$\text{Additional Costs} = 3,000 - 2,000 = \text{USD } 1,000$

Additional Cost split, will also be 40:60 for LH2 Holdings:Partner and hence:

- LH2 Holdings additional cost share: USD 400
- Partner additional cost share: USD 600

Clarification: For the avoidance of doubt, the Partner will never be responsible for any LH2 (LH2 Holdings) internal costs, including team salaries, execution expenses, or fees related to LH2 personnel or services. LH2 covers 100% of its operational costs under this agreement.

Any increase in the Platform's costs above the Base Cost, such as hiring a writer, using premium tools, or other Partner-initiated operational upgrades, will be at the discretion of the Partner. LH2 will contribute to such additional costs in the same proportion as the revenue share split as outlined above.

In case any hiring is proposed by LH2 Holdings, the final decision on such hiring shall rest solely with the Partner to enable adherence to content quality standards.

In this specific case, special - travel-related expenses for eg: Travel for Wrestlemania will also be added to the cost sharing bucket specifically added to subscription related expenses.

Accelerate Program Agreement
between LH2Holdings INC. (LH2 Holdings)
and Wrestling Observer Figure Four Online

(e) Exit Event

- (i) The parties, in principle, agree that the Partner will not undertake any of the following (“Exit Events”) without the prior written intimation to LH2 Holdings which includes :
 - (A) any formation of a joint venture or a strategic, financial, or other collaboration or disposal of assets or business undertaking or making of any investments or divestments, including sale or transfer (including by way of demerger) of the Partner’s assets, whether in a single transaction or series of transactions; and
 - (B) any mergers, acquisitions, liquidation, winding up, and/ or change in the scope of the business of the Partner and/or change in the description of the Platform.
- (ii) Subject to the terms mutually agreed in the Agreement, any Exit Event described under paragraph (c)(i) above will entitle LH2 Holdings to (in addition to the Fee accrued at the time of such Exit Event) such prorated portion of the proceeds, to be received by the Partner from such Exit Events as calculated based on averaged out revenue distribution of the Fee of the last twelve (12) months (or contract life-time whichever is earlier) calculated based on the terms of this Agreement.
- (iii) LH2 Holdings' exit share payment shall be made within 30 days of the sale closing. The Partner must notify LH2 Holdings in writing at least 45 days before any intended sale, merger, or transfer.

For eg:

Base Revenue = USD 2000

New Revenue = USD 5000

Partner Revenue Share = USD 2000 (base revenue) + 50% of USD 3000 (incremental revenue) = USD 3500

LH2 Holdings Revenue Share = 50% of USD 3000 = USD 1500

And let us assume trailing twelve months of revenue share by the two parties is:

Partner : USD 3500x12 = 42000

LH2 Holdings : USD 1500x12 = 18000

Let us assume that the acquisition offer is for USD 300,000

In this case

Partner will get = USD 42K/USD60K x USD 300K = USD 210K

LH2 Holdings will get = USD 18K/USD 60K x USD 300K = USD 90K
