NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Non-Disclosure Agreement (hereunder the "Agreement") is entered into between Upneet Grover and Shobhit Bhatnagar, on behalf of itself and its affiliates individually and collectively "LH2 Holdings", and the other party identified and its affiliates on the signature page of this Agreement (the "Partner") and will be effective as of the date last signed below. In connection with the Purpose as defined below, the Parties may disclose to each other some information that is confidential. LH2 Holdings and the Partner are referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties".

ACCORDINGLY, the Parties agree as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1. "Affiliate" with respect to either Party means any entity (meaning any individual, corporation, company, partnership, limited liability company or group) that now or in the future, directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with a Party hereto (with "control" meaning ownership of more than fifty (50%) of the voting stock of the entity (or, in the case of non-corporate entity, interests, entitled to vote in the election of the corresponding managing authority) whether through the ownership of voting securities, by agreement or otherwise.

1.2. "Confidential Information" means all information, irrespective of its subject matter (technical, industrial, financial, commercial, legal etc.), its nature (know-how, methods, processes, unpatented innovation, designs, data, strategy, business plans, analyzes, reports, pricing, suppliers and customers information, software, prototypes, technical documentation, Samples, Personal Data, etc.), means of its communication (written, oral, visually during on-site or facility visit, electronically including through networks and/or e-mail,) and media (written or printed documents, electronic, magnetic or digital presentation, Samples, drawings, etc.), transmitted by either Party and designated as being of a confidential by the Discloser by an appropriate stamp, legend or marking, or by providing a written notification to that effect, or when they are disclosed orally or more generally in an unwritten manner, by identifying as confidential at the time of disclosure and by reducing it in writing or other tangible form and marking as confidential within 30 days after disclosure, being agreed that within this period, information disclosed orally or in an unwritten manner shall be deemed to be a Confidential Information. Receiver acknowledges and agrees that some Confidential Information provided by Discloser was developed through substantial expenditures of time, effort and money; and derives independent economic and commercial value from not being readily known to or ascertainable by proper means by others who can obtain economic and commercial value from its disclosure or use, that reasonable efforts have been made by Discloser to maintain secrecy of such information.

1.2. "Discloser" and "Receiver" means as to any particular Confidential Information (as hereinafter defined), the "Discloser" is the party disclosing such Confidential Information and the "Receiver" is the party receiving such Confidential Information.

1.3. "Purpose" means the assessment and evaluation of a potential future technical and/or commercial cooperation regarding incident prediction activities based on artificial intelligence.

1.4. "Personal Data" means any information relating: (a) to an identified; or (b) to a directly or indirectly identifiable, natural person.

1.5. "Samples" means any sample of raw materials, in-process or finished products including components, tooling, patterns, molds, jigs, other tangible objects and fixtures or accessories provided by Discloser to Receiver for the Purpose of the Agreement.

2. USE AND DISCLOSURE. Except to the extent expressly permitted by this Agreement for the Purpose, Receiver will not use the Confidential Information and will not disclose Confidential Information to any third party. Receiver agrees to use at least the same degree of care, but not less than a reasonable degree of care, that Receiver uses for its own similar information to prevent unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information. Receiver may disclose the Confidential Information only to those of its employees, contingent workers, on-site contractors, and professional advisers (collectively "Representatives") who are subject to confidentiality obligations with Receiver at least as stringent as those contained in this Agreement, and who have a need to know such information strictly for the Purpose. Each Party shall be further liable for any failure of its Representatives to abide by the provisions of this Agreement. In the event Receiver discovers any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information, Receiver shall promptly notify Discloser in writing, and take all reasonable steps to limit such unauthorized use or disclosure.

Each Party agrees that it will not attempt and will not allow or cause any third party to reverse-engineer, disassemble or decompile any of the Discloser's Confidential Information, without the prior written consent of the Discloser.

Receiver shall not make any copy of Confidential Information except as may be necessary to carry out the Purpose. When duly authorized to make copies, Receiver will not remove or alter any copyright notices, labels, title blocks or marks on or contained in any portion of Confidential Information, and will include all such copyright notices, labels, title blocks or marks on any copies of Confidential Information.

3. EXCEPTIONS. Subject to sufficient evidence being provided by the Receiver, this Agreement shall not apply in respect of any part of the Confidential Information, communicated which:

- a) was obtained in good faith by the Receiver prior to disclosure hereof;
- b) was already in the public domain at the time of Discloser's disclosure or became so through no fault of the Receiver subsequent to the time of the disclosure by Discloser;
- c) was lawfully acquired by the Receiver from a third party having the right to convey the Confidential Information to the Receiver without any existing confidentiality obligation or any existing non-disclosure obligation;
- d) is independently developed by the Receiver without the benefit of Confidential Information received from the Discloser;
- e) is approved for release by prior written authorization by the owner of the Confidential Information;
- f) has not been designated or confirmed as Confidential Information when disclosed orally or visually;

- g) is lawfully required to be disclosed pursuant to any legal or regulatory requirement including any order of a court jurisdiction, but only to the extent so required, provided however that before making such disclosure that the Receiver shall promptly (and in any event, before complying with any such requirement) give Discloser with notice of such requirement and an adequate opportunity to take all available action to protect the concerned Confidential Information, and use reasonable efforts to cause such disclosed Confidential Information to be treated by such court or governmental authority as trade secrets or as confidential.

It is especially agreed upon by the Parties that if only a portion of any Confidential Information falls within one or more of the foregoing exceptions, the remainder shall however continue to be subject to the prohibitions and restrictions set out in this Agreement.

4. OWNERSHIP RIGHTS. All rights, titles and interests in and to Confidential Information and in particular property rights under patents, trademark, copyright or any other form of intellectual property rights belonging to either Party shall remain the exclusive property of such Party. In particular, and without any mention for that purpose being required, this Agreement shall not be construed as conferring any rights on Receiver in respect of the Confidential Information.

5. TERM AND TERMINATION. The present Agreement shall become effective at the date of its signature by the Parties and, except in case of termination pursuant to provision hereafter, remains in force for a period of two (2) years when it concerns information disclosure by Discloser to Receiver. Either Party may terminate this Agreement for convenience at any time upon sixty (60) days prior written notice to the other Party. Receiver's obligation hereunder for each item of Confidential Information shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement for a period of 5 (five) years. Nothing herein is intended to limit or abridge the protection of trade secrets under applicable trade secrets law, if any, and trade secrets shall be maintained until they fall into the public domain. Termination or expiration of this Agreement shall not relieve the Receiver from its responsibilities in respect of any breach prior to such termination or expiration.

6. CONSEQUENCES OF TERM AND TERMINATION. In case this Agreement is not followed by another agreement, when terminated or expired and upon written request of Discloser, Receiver will within thirty (30) days provide Discloser with written certification that Receiver has destroyed any and all Confidential Information as listed in the certification including any copies. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary under this clause 6, latent data such as deleted files, and other non-logical data types, such as memory dumps, swap files, temporary files, printer spool files, and metadata that can only be retrieved by computer forensics experts and is generally considered inaccessible without the use of specialized tools and techniques will not be within the requirement for return or destruction of Confidential Information as set forth by this clause 6.

Any Confidential Information that is retained by the Receiver shall remain subject to the confidentiality obligations contained herein and the Receiver agrees not to access any such retained Confidential Information except pursuant to legal recovery requirements.

7. NO OBLIGATION. This Agreement imposes on the Party neither obligation to communicate Confidential Information, nor to proceed with any business relationship, transaction, or agreement contemplated by the discussion hereunder or otherwise. The submission of Samples pursuant to this Agreement shall not be construed as a sale or offer of sale.

8. DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES. The Confidential Information is provided by Discloser on an "as-is" basis without any warranty of any kind, implied or otherwise, including without limitation all warranties alleged to arise by law, by reason of custom or usage in the trade, or by course of dealing.

9. REMEDIES. Failure of Receiver to comply with any of the provisions of this Agreement will then likely cause Discloser immediate, irreparable harm and continuing damage, which will not have an adequate remedy at law in the event of such non-compliance Receiver agrees that Discloser will have the right to seek for injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction for any violation or threatened violation of this Agreement. All remedies, whether under this Agreement, provided by law or otherwise, shall be cumulative and not alternative or exclusive.

10. APPLICABLE LAW AND COMPETENT JURISDICTION. This Agreement and all disputes arising out of or related to this Agreement will be governed by, construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Delaware, USA, without reference to conflict of laws principles. The Parties irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of competent courts in Delaware.

11. MISCELLANEOUS. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the Confidential Information, and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous general non-disclosure agreements and confidentiality provisions or obligations in any other agreement between the Parties in relation to the Purpose. Neither Party shall assign or transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder (whether by operation of law, sale of securities or assets, any merger type, or other business combination), either in whole or in part, without the prior written approval of the other Party. Any attempt to assign or transfer this Agreement in violation of this provision will be null and void. No change, modification, addition to, or waiver of, any provision of this Agreement shall be binding unless in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both Parties. The official language of this Agreement shall be English and any translation into any other language shall be for convenience only.
